

Rosen Method Movement Intensive

Teacher: Aurelia Priotto St. John
And Thierry François (co-teacher)

April 5 to 9, 2025

Charousse – Gigors et Lozeron (Drôme)

“We can expand, we can take space.
It can be joy, it can be ease.
Each movement can be a dance.”

Marion Rosen

Come to move and dance with us!

Rosen Movements are done without effort, allowing the release of chronic tension and the relaxation of physical and emotional postures.

They improve the flexibility of articulation, encourage the natural breath and invite a deeper experience of ourselves.

Aurelia Priotto St. John is responsible for the Movement Training in France. She is a senior movement training Teacher and senior bodywork Teacher. Trained and formed by Marion Rosen, she has worked for many years in California, New Mexico and Canada where she was responsible for the Movement Training program.

In 2010 she returned to her native land Italy where she is bringing and sharing her passion for Rosen Method.

With joy we welcome you!

Further information

How do the Rosen movements work?

What happens when the body relaxes and lets go?

The muscles relax, lengthen, widen and the emotions can surface.

Body movements become free and a new person, a more complete person appears.

The breath moves and circulates more freely in the whole body.

Rosen movements are joyful, simple and effortless.

They gradually allow the release of muscular tension as well as chronic tension in an effective way.

The opening of the chest and the heart invites the breath to move more easily. It brings a better sensation of oneself and more open feelings towards others.

What is a Rosen Method Movement Intensive?

The five-day workshop is open to anyone who would like to re-learn how to move without effort, with joy, lightness and trust.

You will learn:

1. Warming up the body to open and lubricate the joints.
2. Slow stretching to invite natural breathing.
3. Working with a partner to find a wider attention and a rhythm together.
4. Working on the floor on the spine, and also having time to integrate what you've experienced.

This workshop is also part of the training to become a Rosen Movements teacher. You will learn theory about the movements and how to give and prepare a class.

You'll be encouraged to give a short demonstration in front of the group and to explore different musical styles that correspond to different parts of a movement class.

Sharing circles will be part of the learning process. They offer an opportunity to exchange experiences, to acknowledge the inner process through which everyone goes. There are also circles for asking didactic questions.
